Fitted with a large range cooker, Belfast sink and solid wood worktop leading through to a dining area with breakfast bar. Continuing through the rear of the property brings you to a formal dining room which can comfortably seat 8 guests with exposed stone walls, wood flooring and exposed beam. To the front of the property there is a stunning formal lounge, still showing the original front doors to the stone cottages, exposed stonework and timber beams adding to the character of the building. This room is carpeted and offers a wood fired log burner to add to the cosy nights in. Next to the lounge is a snug room, which could double as a play room for kids or even a home office as well as a downstairs shower room and W/C for bedrooms 3&4. Upstairs there are 4 double bedrooms, each pair accessed via different staircases, ideal for guests and children showing off the history of the previous 2 buildings. Bed 1 has bespoke fitted wardrobes built in to either side of the chimney breast and boasts a stunning cast iron fireplace. Bed 2, also a large double has a full wall of solid wood fitted wardrobes with views over the piggery at the rear and share the characterful family bathroom with shower over the bath, and floor to ceiling tiles. Bed 3 offers bags of light with windows over to the garden as we as the rear of the property, again a good sized double. Bed 4 again has fitted wardrobe/storage space to the side of the chimney breast offering views to the front of the property. All of these cottages were former farm workers cottages and boast 'Piggerys' as outbuildings where pigs were formally kept. Our vendor has created a fabulous office space with one and the other offers great storage. Being the end cottage means it has a huge wrap around garden, completely contained and lawned perfect for families or pets. The parking area at the front offers plenty of space for keeping cars of the road and is laid with gravel.
