Lark Cottage, Longthorpe Green, Peterborough Freehold £700,000

Key Features

- Modern stone built detached family residence.
- Individually designed
- Large wrap around plot.
- Four Bedrooms
- Two large family reception rooms

Situated in the charming heart of old Longthorpe Village, this individually designed modern stone built property offers a perfect blend of character and contemporary comfort.

This light and airy home features four generously sized bedrooms, two recently refitted bathrooms, two large family reception rooms, a spacious kitchen breakfast room. In addition, there is a double integral garage that offers scope for further expansion to the living accommodation already on offer.

The large private plot which the property resides in is approached via double wrought iron gates leading to a very generous parking area which in turn offer access to the double garages.

Conveniently located within easy reach of the city centre with its rail to London, it also enjoys proximity to a host of local amenities, much sought after local schools, Ferry Meadows Park, and of course access to the A1.
